

 On "Philadelphia's Night of Nights," Newmark Grubb Knight Frank (NGKF) is pleased to support the French International School of Philadelphia, or Ecole Française Internationale de Philadelphie. The School is like no other in the Philadelphia region; an independent pre-kindergarten through eighth grade school that serves the city's multicultural, international community by providing a comprehensive bilingual curriculum in French and English. Jeff Mack of NGKF has served on the Board of the French International School of Philadelphia since 2008. Gathered in celebration of this partnership are (left to right) Co-Head of School Kathy Kotchick; Co-Head Catherine Kosman; Board Chair Deborah Willig, Esq.; and Jeff Mack, with French International School students, Mariama, Jules, Kenza, and Jake.
